• SWACHH BHARAT ABHIYAN PROGRAMME

Swachh Bharat Mission (SBM), Swachh Bharat Abhiyan, or Clean India Mission is a country-wide campaign initiated by the Government of India in 2014 to eliminate open defecation and improve solid waste management. The program also aims to increase awareness of menstrual health management. Late Suresh Singh Foundation participated in the Swachh Bharat Abhiyan Programme by involving the community in the cleanliness campaign. Awareness camps were held and volunteers helped to clean the community.

• FREE HEALTH CHECKUP CAMP:

Free health check-up camp was organized by the Foundation to provide medical check-ups and treatment to local residents. The annual Free Health Check-up Camp organized by LATE SURESH SINGH FOUNDATION stands as a beacon of community wellness and empowerment. In collaboration with dedicated healthcare professionals, volunteers, and local authorities, we provided comprehensive medical screenings and consultations to underserved populations. This year's camp saw a remarkable turnout, with individuals from diverse socio-economic backgrounds benefiting from vital health services. From blood pressure checks to diabetes screenings, we addressed various health concerns, emphasizing preventive care and early detection.

Additionally, educational sessions on hygiene, nutrition, and disease prevention were conducted to empower attendees with knowledge for long-term well-being. Through this initiative, we reaffirm our commitment to promoting equitable healthcare access and fostering a healthier trust. We extend our gratitude to all partners, volunteers, and supporters whose collective efforts made this impactful event possible.

• FREE EYE CHECK-UP CAMP

Free eye check-up camp was organized by the Foundation to provide medical check-ups and eye treatment to local residents. Our Trust's annual Free Eye Check-up Camp continues to illuminate lives by promoting vision health and accessibility to eye care services.

Moreover, we distributed free eyeglasses and provided referrals for further treatment when needed, ensuring that no one was left behind due to lack of resources or awareness. Through this initiative, we not only restore vision but also empower individuals to pursue their dreams and participate fully in Trust. We extend heartfelt appreciation to our volunteers, partners, and sponsors whose unwavering support made this impactful event possible.

• FREE MEDICINES DISTRIBUTION CAMP

A Free medicines distribution camp was organized by the LATE SURESH SINGH FOUNDATION to provide medicines for free to the low-income individuals in the community. The Free Medicines Distribution Camp, a cornerstone of our Trust's mission, epitomizes our commitment to ensuring access to essential healthcare resources for all. This year's camp witnessed a profound impact as we distributed vital medications to individuals facing financial constraints or lacking access to healthcare facilities. Collaborating with pharmaceutical companies, healthcare professionals, and volunteers, we provided a wide range of medications, including antibiotics, pain relievers, and chronic disease management drugs.

• EDUCATIONAL AWARENESS PROGRAMME

An educational awareness programme was organized by the Foundation to create awareness about the importance of education and the available opportunities for the low income families. The Educational Awareness Programme stands as a testament to our Trust's unwavering dedication to empowering communities through knowledge and learning. This year, our programme reached new heights, engaging with diverse audiences to promote literacy, skills development, and lifelong learning. Through workshops, seminars, and interactive sessions, we addressed crucial topics ranging from basic literacy and numeracy to vocational training and digital literacy.

• BOOKS & STATIONARY DISTRIBUTION CAMP

A books and stationary distribution camp was organized by the foundation to provide free books and stationary to community members. The Books & Stationery Distribution Camp epitomizes our Trust's commitment to fostering education and empowering underserved communities through access to essential learning resources. This year's camp marked another milestone in our journey to bridge the educational divide by providing students with much-needed books, notebooks, pens, and other stationary items. Collaborating with local schools, educational institutions, and generous donors, we ensured that students from diverse backgrounds had the tools necessary to pursue their academic endeavours with enthusiasm and confidence.

• SPORTS & GAMES PROGRAMME

A sports and games programme was organized by Late Suresh Singh Foundation to promote games and sports amongst youngsters. This year's programme saw enthusiastic participation from individuals of all ages and backgrounds, fostering teamwork, leadership skills, and physical well-being. Through various sporting events, including football, basketball, and athletics, we provided a platform for participants to showcase their talents and cultivate a spirit of healthy competition. This programme not only promotes physical fitness but also instills valuable life skills such as discipline, resilience, and camaraderie. We extend sincere appreciation to our dedicated volunteers, partners, and sponsors whose support and collaboration made this enriching experience possible, strengthening communities through the power of sport.

• TREE PLANTATION PROGRAMME

Trees are valuable gifts of nature. The lives of men, animals and insects are inconceivable without the existence of trees in the world. A tree plantation programme was organized by the Foundation to create awareness about importance of trees and of protecting the environment. We organized workshops on the importance of trees in maintaining ecological balance and mitigating natural disasters. By nurturing a culture of environmental responsibility, we are sowing the seeds for a greener, more sustainable future. We extend heartfelt appreciation to all supporters, volunteers, and partners whose commitment to environmental conservation made this programme possible.

• VOCATIONAL TRAINING PROGRAMME

Vocational training focuses on developing technical skills for a specific job or trade. It offers practical knowledge in contrast to theoretical knowledge offered by the conventional formal education system. A vocational training programme was organized by the Foundation to introduce community members to various vocational options. The Vocational Training Programme underscores our Trust's dedication to empowering individuals with the skills and knowledge necessary for sustainable livelihoods. This year's programme saw remarkable success in equipping participants with practical skills tailored to local market needs. We express sincere gratitude to our dedicated trainers, partners, and sponsors whose support has been instrumental in making this programme a resounding success, transforming lives and communities for the better.

• DAY CELEBRATION PROGRAMME

The main activities that were held include Independence Day art and craft activities, drawing and painting competitions on special day themes, group reading history storybooks and a lot more.

• FOOD DISTRIBUTION PROGRAMME

Food distribution program means a program that provides food directly to needy individuals. A food distribution programme was organized by Late Suresh Singh Foundation to provide food to community members. We organized educational sessions on nutrition and meal planning to empower recipients with knowledge for long-term food security. By fostering collaboration and compassion, we not only provided immediate relief but also laid the groundwork for sustainable solutions to hunger.

• CULTURAL PROGRAMME

A cultural programme was organized by Late Suresh Singh Foundation to promote Indian culture workshops and interactive activities provided opportunities for participants to explore different customs, languages, and cuisines, promoting intercultural dialogue and social cohesion. By nurturing a sense of belonging and pride in one's cultural identity, we contribute to the fabric of a more inclusive Trust. We extend heartfelt gratitude to our dedicated volunteers, artists, performers, and sponsors whose creativity and commitment made this programme a vibrant success, enriching lives and strengthening cultural connections within our communities.
